This email is being sent to all of the Superintendents, Board of Managers Members and Bookkeepers we have on file for the Egyptian Trust. If you received this email in error please forward to the appropriate party and contact Krista Breakfield at the Metro East Service Office of Meritain Health to update the contact information.

Dear Participating Employer Group ~

Attached is the Summer 2011 newsletter. Please be sure to provide this to your employees. This newsletter contains information concerning the upcoming health plan changes and rates to become effective September 1, 2011. This is the format in which we communicate such information to your employees relying on the employer to either print, mail, email, or direct members to the Egyptian Trust website at www.egtrust.org to retrieve this newsletter.

With the upcoming open enrollment for the Egyptian Trust Health Plans, we thought it would be helpful to you if we provided the 1 page summary of the plan comparisons. We have attached a number of combinations of the plan offerings and believe this should cover every employer groups possible combinations of health plans being offered to their membership. Please feel free to include the appropriate summary comparison of the Plans you are offering your employees when you provide the newsletter.

Also, this email and the attachments will also be made available on the private side of the Egyptian Trust website at www.egtrust.org. You only need enter your username and password to gain access.

Wish you all a great and safe Summer!
